

SET 38 (Swings)

1. Design a standalone application for currency converter from rupee to dollars, pound, euro and franc (conversion rate : Use current conversion ratios) using combo button.
2. Design a standalone application to find the area of circle, triangle, rectangle and square in four different frames. Switch over the frames from the main frame based on the choices from dropdown menu.
3. Design a standalone application to take Array size and keep showing the array in a text area on taking Array elements through a text field.
4. Design a standalone application to take array size and elements from text field and also insert an extra element into the array on said position. Design application with all relevant fields.
5. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to delete an element from an array.
6. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to find unique element from an array.
7. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to merge two arrays one after another.
8. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to merge two arrays consecutively.
9. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to find the common elements of two arrays.
10. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to rotate the array in said directions with one element at a time from the front end of the array.
